

SPATZI FURMINT. TOKAJ, HUNGARY.

VARIETAL: 100% Furmint

STYLE: Dry

VINEYARD: 1,500 feet above sea level; volcanic soils; sheltered by nearby mountains

TASTING NOTES: Delicate and elegant with notes of pear and citrus, fresh and zesty.

Our Furmint is grown in Tokaj, near the Carpathian Mountains - 1,499 ft above sea level. The location of our region has a unique continental climate due to the protection of the nearby mountains. The soils are of volcanic origin and contain a significant amount of gold! Some of the best terroirs in Tokaj are selected for this Furmint.

A delicate and elegant wine with notes of pear and citrus, fresh and zesty.
